Great Container Gardens

Slide 12 of 26

Repeating an element is one of the most effective tools of garden design. It applies to containers, too. Here, purple New Zealand flax and coralbells go together, as well as the arching form of the flax and the fiber optic grass. This planting grows best in partial sun.

- A. Fiber optic grass (Scirpus cernuus) -- 1
- B. Coralbells (Heuchera 'Amethyst Mist') -- 1
- C. New Zealand flax (Phormium tenax) -- 1
- D. Variegated geranium (Pelargonium 'Happy Thought') -- 1
- E. Calamondin (Citrofortunella microcarpa) -- 1
